Do you have cooking in your blood?

Looking for an impassioned cook (m/f/d), full or part-time

Focused and speedy work as a foursome Working together to bring high quality to the plate
Cooking with excellence in a small kitchen Feeling valued in a close-knit team that trusts you and counts on you This is what working at Kartoffelhaus ("House of Potatoes") is like.

Small Kitchen, Cool Creations

If you like to cook fast and hands-on, you've come to the right place. Task organisation is largely determined by the location, as the kitchen space is clearly delineated in this landmark building. We combine tradition and trends in our kitchen. The focus is on good ingredients – honest-to-goodness cooking with wholesome cooking techniques is very important to us.

Love of Food, Respect for People, Room for New Things

Since we love food and people so much, we treat both with respect. This includes accommodating certain allergies and intolerances. Our concept for this makes us real experts in this field. Separate menus for gluten-free, vegan and lactose-free dishes prevent confusion and make everything much easier to manage. Separate seasonal menus provide opportunities for variety and experimentation, satisfying our urge to constantly improve little by little.

With or Without Experience: Cooking Is in Your Blood

You want to cook and are interested in joining us, but you're afraid that you might lack the skills or experience? Just stop by and we'll talk it over! Learning and experience comes while on the job. What is most important to us is that you are passionate about cooking and want to get involved with our close-knit team. Once we're in the groove, the time spent working in the kitchen simply flies by, especially if you are a football fan ! Though we also have other interests – honest! Drop by and we'll chat!

Your skills:

- True passion for genuine cooking
- It's great if you have trained as a chef, for then we can get started right away. However, we are also experts in the area of training.
- Open eyes and ears
- Language skills in one of the languages Karim speaks, i.e., German, Italian, Arabic, French or English
- A delight in premium fresh products and quality
- We're looking for a cheerful disposition, agility and enjoyment in finding practical ways to quickly accomplish tasks as a team. So serving with a spoon is out. It has to be fast!

What you can expect:

- A warm, friendly and dependable team that will support you – even going along with you to the registration office if you're not sure your language skills are good enough
- Business hours from 5 p.m. Mon-Fri, open for lunch and dinner on Sat and Sun
- A kitchen with 3 teammates for the perfect cooking groove
- A whole host of classic cooking and simmering techniques
- Cooking over flames – good for taste and culinary enjoyment
- Thorough training and orientation by Karim, who knows what he is doing
- Unique dishes that you can't find anywhere else
- Bosses who care how everyone is doing and that they feel so comfortable they'll never want to leave again
- Overtime is extremely rare, letting you plan ahead for your hours off
- Further training to suit your fancy
- Cooking for FC Freiburg footballers who come in to dine every now and then
- One or more paid trial shifts until all of us feel it's a good fit
- Decent pay, which we will talk about in person. Just come with your ideas about salary and working hours when you show up for the interview!

Future and Safety

After 30 years in the restaurant business, Kartoffelhaus in Fribourg proved its resilience even during the corona pandemic by retaining its staff. We are always renewing how we do business and enjoy a great reputation – and we plan to keep it that way. We look forward to getting to know you, to mastering the – hopefully safer – times to come and to celebrating success with you.

Call or e-mail us and we'll make an appointment to make each other's acquaintance!
